

Quest Life Sciences

Source of Clinical Excellence

QUALITY POLICY

We at Quest life Sciences strive for excellence by providing customised solutions and services that best satisfies the requirements of our customers and continuously improve quality, reliability and service with the help on an effective quality management system encompassing all statutory, regulatory, health, safety environment requirements at our work place.

We strive to meet global standards and regulatory requirements. We shall accomplish the clinical research with ethical principals and continually improve our system of functioning by key performance indicator as well as by customer service.

Quest life Sciences is committed to fullfill and achieve all our customer requirements on a sustained basis.

T.S Jaishankar
Managing Director